PROVIDED BY
The leading immigration law publisher
ILW.COM
http://www.ilw.com

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

LIFE CHANGING CAREER OPPORTUNITIES ARE AVAILABLE FOR YOU!

How would you like to work for an agency that changes lives everyday, invests in the career development and growth of its employees, and is comprised of a diverse workforce providing career opportunities nationwide?

Those who join USCIS enjoy personal and professional growth through rewarding job assignments and benefit from a continual learning environment.

As a USCIS employee, you will:

Experience the opportunity to positively affect the lives of those on the path toward US citizenship;

- Be exposed to international communities and diverse cultures. On a daily basis, our employees meet people from all over the world who desire to live here and become integrated into American society;
- Grow in a stimulating environment where professional development and career mobility are championed;
- Take innovative approaches to improving service delivery to our customers, addressing national security goals, and promoting organizational excellence in service to our Nation; and
- Directly influence the future of America by determining the eligibility of legal immigrants for work permits, permanent residency, and citizenship.

What's available? Currently hundreds of Adjudications Officer positions are available nationwide at the GS-5/7/9 grade levels. Starting salaries range from $25,623 to $38,824, depending on the grade level and location. Promotion potential and regular salary increases will also be available.

What's expected of a new recruit? Adjudications Officers review and make determinations regarding the eligibility of immigrants for benefits, including permanent residence and citizenship provided under the immigration and nationality laws of the United States. New recruits will attend a 6-week BASIC training program in Dallas, Texas, a 1-week Practicum at the National Benefits Center in Lees Summit, Missouri, and a one week Practicum at either a District Office or Service Center. During the training and practicum, new recruits will be provided with the skills needed to adjudicate applications and petitions.

What are the qualifications? Applicants can qualify for the GS-5/7/9 grade levels based on education, experience, or a combination of both education and experience. All academic majors are acceptable for this position. Detailed qualification requirements are outlined in the vacancy announcement.

When will applications be accepted? Applications will be accepted from all interested U.S. Citizens starting Tuesday, January 29, 2008 through Friday, February 19, 2008. Therefore, if interested, you must act fast!

How do I apply? If this challenging and rewarding opportunity interests you, please review the official vacancy announcement located on the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) USA jobs website by clicking on the following link https://cbpmhc.hr-services.org/AO/ and by referencing vacancy announcement number FCIP-157527-S1.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SERCURITY IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER