USCIS Receipt #	Date of Approval (mm/dd/yyyy):	Date Approval/Extension Expires (mm/dd/yyyy)

2. Check "a", "b," or "c." (If none of the below options apply, STOP. You cannot file this petition.)

- a. The child will seek an immigrant visa, if the Form I-800 is approved, because the child will reside in the United States with me, the U.S. citizen petitioner, after the child's admission to the United States on the basis of the proposed adoption.
- NOTE: If you, the U.S. citizen petitioner, are domiciled in the United States, but are posted abroad temporarily under official orders as a member of the Uniformed Services as defined in 5 U.S.C. 2101, or as a civilian officer or employee of the U.S. Government, the child will be deemed to be coming to the United States to reside in the United States with you, the U.S. citizen petitioner.*
- b. The child will seek a nonimmigrant visa, in order to travel to the United States to obtain naturalization under section 322 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), because I (we), the U.S. citizen petitioner and spouse (if married), intend to complete the adoption abroad, and I (we) will continue to reside abroad with the child immediately following the adoption, rather than residing in the United States.
- NOTE: This option is not available if the child will be adopted in the United States. You must complete the adoption abroad to use this option.*

- c. The child will seek adjustment of status because the child is already present in the United States in a status that does not preclude the child's adjustment of status, and I (we), the U.S. citizen petitioner and spouse (if married), will either adopt the child in the country of the child's habitual residence or adopt the child in the United States after obtaining custody of the child in that country for purposes of emigration and adoption.

NOTE: This option is not available if the country of the child's habitual residence requires the child's return to that country in order for the U.S. citizen petitioner to adopt or obtain custody of the child.

3. If you checked Item 2, a, or Item 2, b, provide the location of the U.S. Embassy or consulate outside the United States where you intend to submit the child's application for a visa.

Yes No

NOTE: A copy of any irrevocable consent signed by the legal custodian(s) and any other individual or entity that must consent to the child's adoption must be submitted with the petition unless the law of the country of the child's habitual residence provides that their identities may not be disclosed. 16. Have you or your spouse (if married) had any contact with the parent(s), legal custodian or other individual or entity responsible for the care of the child you are seeking to adopt? Yes No Question 18.
