

Please join us in Salt Lake City for our traditional sing-a-long & all-around music fest (after the 8-10 PM practice roundtables/AILF litigation meeting)
Thursday, June 23, 10:30PM, Marriott Hotel, 75 South West Temple

The Solitude Room - Lobby Level

NOTICE TO ATTEND

Allegations:

Identity - You are a long or short time member of AILA; or a non-member attorney, immigration advocate, academic, legislator, judge, writer, publisher, law student, conference exhibitor, or other, and,

You admit enjoying some sort of music, song, or expression; and,

Possession of Musical Inclinations - On one or more prior occasion(s) you instigated, joined, attended, stopped by, lent your voice, instrument, palms, feet, ears; or were seen at an immigration sing-a-long and musical evening; or, just thought about it; or, declined to attend; or, were not previously aware of such events, but might have been interested; and,

You have, at sometime since you last entered the world, engaged in, or attempted to engage in, playing an instrument, clapping, snapping, dancing, hopping, bopping, whistling, humming, singing, writing, composing, or listening to music or songs.

Charges:

Notwithstanding any of the preceding clauses, you are ready to voluntarily join like-minded colleagues in an informal folk, oldies, blues, jazz, Broadway jam and songfest (with real and parody lyrics) at the AILA Conference in Salt Lake City.

WHEREFORE, you are not going to want to miss this year's sing-a-long, featuring at least two guitars, as much energy as we can muster after 10PM, and all those familiar tunes! You are hereby notified to bring your voices, kazoos, percussion, other instruments, and favorite songs to the newly traditional sing-a-long and musical evening, beginning at 10:30 PM on Thursday, June 23, 2005, at a room in the Marriott Hotel to be announced.

Late arrivals will not be considered to constitute a failure to attend. You do not need to have had a perm to attend. Those unable to attend will be missed without a showing of exceptional circumstances.

However, those not attending will forfeit the benefit (not the right) of much collegiality, comradeship, laughter, music, and song. This notice is deemed adequate no matter where or when sent, or how or when received, and is not subject to review unless determined by the makers to be absolutely and beyond a doubt 100% offbeat.
