

Dear colleagues:

The ABA Immigration Pro Bono Development and Bar Activation Project received a generous donation from Juris Publishing, Inc. of 100 copies of Robert C. Divine's Immigration Practice (2000 Edition) to distribute to pro bono attorneys/agencies providing pro bono assistance to indigent immigrants, refugees and newcomers in their immigration matters. In 1411 pages, the book covers dealing with clients, government agencies, and the law; the immigration process including inadmissibility and deportability groups and their waiver, removal proceedings and relief from them, and citizenship; avenues towards permanent residence including family and employment-based avenues and immigration to avoid persecution and chaos; classifications for temporary status, and comparative permanent opportunities; other areas of representation concerning foreign nationals; and appendices including government offices, forms, checklists and documents. The book is normally sold for over $100.

We are pleased to offer the book to pro bono attorneys/agencies for free and are requesting $10 to cover shipping and handling via priority mail. If you or your agency is interested in a copy, please fill out and send the form below with a check or money order for $10. The book will be distributed on a first-come, first-serve basis until the supply of 100 is exhausted. Only one copy may be requested per individual, per law firm or per pro bono agency/program.

Sincerely,

Christopher Nugent
